

RAMBLERS FAMILY WALKING ADVENTURES TO THE RESCUE ! AVAILABILITY DURING SCHOOL HOLIDAYS*

The long school holidays can be a nightmare for parents who have left their holiday bookings too late but salvation is at hand ! Walking Specialists Ramblers Worldwide Holidays have just launched their first Family Holidays programme with departures solely within the main* school holiday period for many schools, to a number of exciting destinations.

This new programme has been carefully researched and created to appeal to families who want to share a whole range of experiences and activities at a leisurely pace in some of the world's most exciting and magical places.

These holidays offer a great opportunity for families to make new friends, soak up the history, culture and cuisine of new countries whilst benefiting from healthy, environmentally friendly walks. One might even learn another language en route !

Ramblers Family Walking Adventures has selected destinations that lend themselves ideally to family holiday itineraries. All holidays featured include the services of a tour leader.

KLOSTERS, SWITZERLAND

What could be nicer than having a picnic or barbeque with the family in a flower-filled meadow or rustic alpine hut set against an awe-inspiring backdrop of snow-clad peaks ?

And then there's that combination of cable cars, walking and many other activities like, swimming, saunas, bowling alleys, tennis, golf, horse-riding and even bar football for those who don't want to venture onto the slopes !
